

CATHOLIC RECORD SOCIETY - CALL FOR PAPERS

24–26 JULY 2017

The Catholic Record Society are delighted to announce a call for papers for their sixtieth annual conference, to be held at Murray Edwards College, Cambridge, 24–26 July 2017. The Society invites proposals on any topic relating to Reformation and post-Reformation Catholic History in the British Isles. We welcome proposals for 20-minute papers.

To propose a paper, fill in the application form, including an abstract of 300 words, and submit to catholicrecordsociety@gmail.com no later than Friday 21 April 2017.

The Society offers up to five bursaries to postgraduate students to contribute to the cost of attending the conference, the value of which will be equivalent to half the cost of attending the conference (excluding travel costs). Recipients of the bursary are expected to deliver a Short Communication on the subject under study.

CATHOLIC RECORD SOCIETY
MURRAY EDWARDS COLLEGE, CAMBRIDGE
24–26 JULY 2017

PAPER PROPOSAL FORM

Name:

Address:

Email:

Institutional Affiliation (if any):

Are you a postgraduate student?

Type of paper: Research Paper / Short Communications (delete as appropriate)

Title of Paper:

Brief Synopsis: (ca. 300 words)

Will audio-visual equipment be required? (Please specify)

Do you expect to require accommodation at Murray Edwards College?
(This will not bind you, but will help us to estimate how many rooms we shall require).

Return this form to catholicrecordsociety@gmail.com by 21 April 2017