

MONDAY 20 JULY

[13.00 CRS Council Meeting]

14.15 Registration

14.45 Conference Secretary's Welcome and Notices

15.00 'Loose link-ups', Autonomy and 'Authentic' Poor Clare life in Britain in the long 1960s

Carmen Mangion (Birkbeck, University of London)

16.00 Tea

16.20 Panel: Political Catholicism

Maggie Scull (King's College London): 'No Influence of Any Kind': The Archbishops of Westminster and the Northern Irish Troubles

Andrés-María Vicent (Universidad Autónoma de Madrid): Confessions beyond Revolutions: Balmes discovering British Catholicism (1840-1846)

Ruth Barbour (University of Warwick): John Hardman, senior (1766-1844) from seigneurial Catholicism in Lancashire to non-conformist Birmingham

18.00 New light on the Liverpool Catholic Schools Controversy 1936-1939

Geoffrey F. Chorley (Liverpool Hope University)

19.00 Dinner

20.00 Book Launch and Reception: Downside Abbey Press recent publications

TUESDAY 21 JULY

7.30 Holy Mass for deceased members of the CRS

8.30 Breakfast

9.15 Archbishop George Errington - Putting the Record Straight

Serenhedd James (University of Oxford)

10.15 Coffee

10.45 Panel: the Catholic Community in changing times

Jade Scott (University of Glasgow): *'A Currency of Information':
Reconstructing the religious and political networks of Lady Anne Percy, countess of Northumberland (1536-1591)*

Jennifer Binczewski (Washington State University): *The Widow's House:
Shifting Strategies of Post-Reformation Catholics in England*

Anastasia Stylianou (University of Warwick): Constructions of blood in English Reformation martyrologies

12.30 Lunch and AGM at 14.00

15.00 History and Identity: the English Secular Priesthood since the Reformation

Judith Champ (Oscott College)

16.30 Coffee

17.00 A Catholic queen in the Protestant Nation: curiosity condemnation in the reign of Catherine of Braganza (1662-1684)

Adam Morton (Newcastle University)

18.30 Supper

20.00 Projects in Progress: Simon Johnson (Downside Abbey); James
Kelly (Durham University); Francis Young (East Anglia)

WEDNESDAY 22 JULY

7.30 Holy Mass

8.30 Breakfast

9.00 Panel: Marian Catholicism and its legacy

Elizabeth Evenden (Harvard/Brunel): Catholicism under Philip and Mary: English and Spanish perspectives and the Elizabethan propaganda machine

Fred Smith (University of Cambridge): Pillars of Consciences: Deprived Cathedral Clergy and English Catholic Identity 1559-75

Ceri Law (Queen Mary, University of London): The Memory of the Marian Regime among Elizabethan Catholics

10.30 Coffee

10.45 Panel: Catholics and Local Networks in the early eighteenth century

Carys Brown (University of Cambridge): Militant Catholicism, Inter-confessional Relations, and the Rookwood Family of Stanningfield, Suffolk, c.1689-c.1737

Tom McNally (University of Aberdeen): The Arrest, Interrogation and Trial of Patrick Weems SJ, Aberdeen, 1720

12.00 Lunch

12.45 Coach leaves for excursion to Oxburgh